

Daniel C. Jackson

Bio:

Daniel is thrilled to be back with his favorite Birmingham artist, Carl Dean-Skywalker, Jr. On a more serious note, Daniel has spent the better part of the last year, performing the title Role in Buddy: the Buddy Holly Story in Maryland, Reno, and of course, Birmingham, AL! Most recently was seen in the successful run of Hairspray with Red Mountain Theater Company. Some of his favorite roles were right here in this theatre. Troy Bolton (High School Musical 2), Enjolras (Les Miserables), Buddy (Buddy), and Kenickie (Grease). Other MCAT Shows: Aida, Bye Bye Birdie, and Pippin. Thanks to of course, Carl, Julia, Janice, and Leah! Family, AG, and God. I'd like to dedicate this show to my brother who throughout the course of this process was deployed to Iraq. You're my hero, Justin. See you in a year. Enjoy the show!!

Who do you play in the show?

Shane Grey, leader of Connect 3. A Band beyond bands. Known for their off kilter humor and their sweet dispositions, this brother band is responsible for setting the proverbial bar for all young rockers.

What's been your favorite part of this process?

Definitely getting to work with Carl again. This guy knows his stuff. I first worked with him in 2007, and since then I've had the privilege to work for him. Also, getting to come back to Birmingham for more high energy theatrics!

What's your favorite moment/number in the show?

I love "Wouldn't Change a Thing" Singing with the multi-talented Anna Grace Barlow is such a delight.

Why should people come see Camp Rock?

You should come see some of Birmingham's youngest and brightest stars on the stage. Set to stage by an excellent creative team. This is our lives and our dedication at work, and we want to share this gift with YOU! Camp Rock is about living for what you believe in, in the midst of adversity and its fun for people of all ages!
