

Jordan A. Giddens

	Bio:
	Jordan is thrilled to have the chance to work with MCAT in Camp Rock. Previous shows include: Seussical (Horton the Elephant), Night of January 16th, and The Good Doctor. He would like to thank Amy Murphy, Carl Dean, and his family and friends.
	Who do you play in the show?
	I play Nate Grey, a character who is very interesting to me. Nate is a part of the rock band Connect 3, along with his two other brothers, Jason and Shane. Nate's interactions with Dana provide a different side of Nate.
Where are you in school?
I am a senior at The Altamont School. I'm very excited to graduate and start my college journey!
What's been your favorite part of this process?
My favorite part of this process has been interacting with an entirely different group of actors. Also getting the opportunity to work with Carl has already helped me improve my acting skills.
What's your favorite moment/number in the show?
My favorite moment in the show is during the duet "Introducing Me" with Dana. It's a truly pivotal moment in their relationship, and it's really fun to be able to see their transformation take place.
Why should people come see Camp Rock?
The cast of Camp Rock is really talented, and everyone has worked incredibly hard to get this show done in under a month. It's a really fun show with great music for all ages. Bring your kids and have a GREAT night at the Virginia Samford Theatre!!
